DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Liu et al (New Fast Algorithms for the Estimation of Block Motion Vectors) in view of Pullen et al (5,923,376) for the same reasons as set forth in Section 3 of the last office action, dated 7/11/06.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 10/11/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant asserts on pages 2-4 of the Remarks that Pullen et al fails to disclose a second distortion function. However, Pullen et al teaches the concept of such well known minimization of multiple distortion functions. For example, Figure 6 of Pullen et al illustrates the process of minimizing a first distortion function 94 and a second distortion function 104. Similarly, Figure 7 of Pullen et al illustrates the process of minimizing a first distortion function (134-140) and a second distortion function (142-148). And finally, Figures 9 and 10 of Pullen et al illustrates the process of minimizing a first distortion function (level 0 and 1) and a second distortion function (level 1 and 2).

In response to applicant's argument on page 5 of the Remarks that there is no suggestion to combine the references, the examiner recognizes that obviousness can only be established by combining or modifying the teachings of the prior art to produce the claimed invention where there is some teaching, suggestion, or motivation to do so found either in the references themselves or in the knowledge generally available to one of ordinary skill in the art. See In re Fine, 837 F.2d 1071, 5 USPQ2d 1596 (Fed. Cir. 1988) and In re Jones, 958 F.2d 347, 21 USPQ2d 1941 (Fed. Cir. 1992). In this case, even if the suggestion for combination is not particularly specified in either Liu et al or Pullen et al, the question in the test for combining references in a section 103 rejection is not solely relied on what the individual reference expressly teaches. In re McLaughlin, 170 USPQ 209-213:

"It should be too well settled now to require citation or discussion that the test for combining references is not what the individual references themselves suggest but rather what the combination of disclosures taken as a whole would suggest to one of ordinary skill in the art. Any judgment on obviousness is in a sense necessarily a reconstruction based upon hindsight reasoning, but so long as it takes into account only knowledge which was within the level of ordinary skill at the time the claimed invention was made and does not include knowledge gleaned only from applicant's disclosure, such a reconstruction is proper."

Therefore, even though neither Liu et al nor Pullen et al taken singularly for claims 1-30 suggests the combination as claimed, the combination of Liu et al and Pullen et al taken as a whole would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art as previously set forth in the last office action.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
